The Agony Over.

The senatorial contest which has excited so much feeling in this state, and furnished the theme for so much newspape controversy, was brought to a close Tuesday by the nomination of Judge Poland for representative in this district, and his acceptance of the nomination. We believe the feeling was universal among those personally acquainted with Mr. Morrill and Judge Poland, that the state could in no way be so well served in congress, as by keeping both gentlemen in the positions they now fill, Judge Poland in the senate, and Mr. Morrill in the house. We know that many of Mr. Morrill's leading friends were of this opinion, and used their influence with Mr. Morrill to induce him to remain in the house. But he was inexorable and would go to the senate or not be in congress at
